$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

A beautiful Georgia lady, Vice-President of the East End Palmetto Club, of Savannah, and prominent socially there, relates the following experience: "You certainly have produced the finest medicine for suffering women that is to be had in the country. I want to recommend it especially to mothers. I was seventeen years old when my darling boy was born. Felt very exhausted and weak for a long time, and it seemed I could not get my strength back. My sister-in-law bought me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (after I had tried several of the other remedies which are so much advertised, and found no relief). I had little faith in the medicine at the time and was so weak and sick that I felt discouraged, but within a week after I had commenced taking your 'Prescription' I was like a different woman. New life and vitality seemed to come with each succeeding day, until, in a few weeks, I was in fine health, and a happy, hearty woman. My boy is now two years old, and, thanks to your splendid medicine, I am enjoying perfect health. If at any time I feel tired or in need of a tonic, a few doses of your 'Favorite Prescription' recuperates me at once. My address is No. 511 Jones Street, East, Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. SUSIE WILLIAMS.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ROBERT E. LEE.

Robert Edward Lee was the son of Henry Lee, the celebrated cavalry leader of the revolution—better known as "Light-Horse Harry"—and Anne Hill Carter, daughter of Charles Carter, of Shirley, on the James. He was born at Stratford on the Potomac, in Westmoreland county, on January 19, 1807. After a thorough classical and mathematical training he was admitted into the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1825, and graduated in 1829, second in his class, and without ever having received a demerit; was assigned to duty as second lieutenant of engineers, married in 1832 Mary Custis, daughter of George Washington Parke Custis, the adopted son of General Washington; promoted to first lieutenant in 1836, and to captain in 1838; served in the Mexican war (1846-'47) as chief engineer of General Scott's army with such distinction that he was brevetted colonel; was superintendent of West Point from 1852 to 1855; commanded in person the detachment of United States Marines which captured the notorious John Brown at Harper's Ferry in 1859; appointed colonel of cavalry March, 1861, but resigned April 20th to offer his services to his native State, which had seceded April 17, 1861. He was immediately appointed commander-in-chief of all her forces. His military career need not here be traced further than to say he entered the Confederate service as brigadier-general, and surrendered at Appomattox, April 9, 1865, as commander-in-chief of all the armies of the Confederacy. He carried the destiny of the Confederacy on the point of his sword, and with his surrender it fell.

Refusing all gifts of houses, estates and money, which were offered him in this country and Europe, and declining positions of princely salary, he accepted, in the summer of 1865, the presidency of Washington College (now Washington and Lee University), Lexington, Va., having resolved to consecrate the remainder of his life to the great work of training the youth of the land he had loved and served so well. Thus again did he illustrate that precept which he early gave to his sons, and which had been the leading factor in his own character, that "Duty is the sublimest word in the English language." He died in Lexington October 12, 1870, and his remains were buried in the college chapel, where they still rest.

Just before his death he edited the third edition of his father's "Memoirs of the War of '76," to which he prefixed a life of the author.—Selected.

"STONEWALL" JACKSON.

Thomas Jonathan Jackson, the world-renowned general, was born at Clarksburg, Va., January 21, 1824. He graduated at West Point in 1846, was assigned to the artillery branch of the service, and at once placed on duty with the army in Mexico, where he gained great distinction, being successfully brevetted captain and major. In 1851 he resigned his commission in the army, and was appointed Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy and Instructor in Artillery in the Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington, and there he remained until the civil war began. Entering the Confederate service as colonel, he rapidly passed through the intermediate grades, and became lieutenant-general.

His sobriquet of "Stonewall" originated at the battle of Manassas. General Bee, in rallying his men, pointed to Jackson and his brigade, and shouted, "Look! there is Jackson standing like a stone wall!"

In a reconnoissance between hostile lines after nightfall, at the battle of Chancellorsville, he and his staff were taken for federal scouts and fired on by Confederates. Nearly the entire staff were killed or wounded, and Jackson's left arm was so shattered as to necessitate amputation; pneumonia set in, and he died at Guinea station, near Fredericksburg, Va., May 10, 1863.—[Selected.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Danderine

Grew This Hair

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT.

Little Frances Marie Knowlton is the daughter of Dr. E. W. Knowlton, the discoverer of this great hair-growing remedy, and her beautiful hair was grown wholly by the use of this great tonic.

This little girl had no more hair than the average child before using Danderine, while now she has the longest and most beautiful head of golden hair ever possessed by a child of her age in the world.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy ever discovered. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c. bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made.

NOW at all druggists, in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Women Fight a Duel.

The Rue Bondy in Paris was the scene Monday night of a fatal and mysterious tragedy which the police are at present engaged in unraveling. Shortly after 5 o'clock two cabs dashed up at full speed the drivers lashing their horses as if racing with each other. They pulled up suddenly, and out of each cab jumped a woman. They immediately made a rush at one another, and began clawing each other's faces with their nails. The cabmen looked on calmly, and soon a noisy crowd closed round the combatants, urging them on. The younger woman who was only about 17 years of age, suddenly exclaimed: "One or the other of us must die!" and whipped out a small gilt dagget from her bosom. Her antagonist pulled a long hatpin from her hat, and a desperate duel began between the two infuriated women, whose hands were covered with blood. With a lightning movement the younger woman then plunged her dagger into the other's body. The woman fell and died immediately. One of the bystanders, a musician employed at an adjoining theater in the Porte St. Martin, rushed forward to secure the murderess, but with a furious blow she stabbed him also, and jumped into the cab which had brought her to the spot, and drove rapidly away. The murdered woman's body was conveyed to the morgue, and the injured man to the hospital. Yesterday afternoon the police succeeded in arresting the aggressor, who gave her name as Clementine Ponciaux, a steel polisher. She swore before the magistrate that she did not even know the woman she had killed, and who, she alleged, attacked her without provocation.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 19, 1905.

TODAY is the 97th anniversary of the birth of General Robert Edward Lee, one of the brighest in the galaxy of great and good men who have lived, moved and had their being since man was placed on the earth. The subject of eulogiums for two-score years, it is difficult to conceive any more than what has been said of the great leader by historians, orators and the public press. General Lee enjoyed a national reputation before the war between the States. While that was in progress there was little time to study the merits of the illustrious chieftain, but when the conflict was over the leader of the Army of Northern Virginia glittered as a bright star in the turmoils incident to reconstruction as he recoiled from notoriety and sought the shades of tranquility in one of the educational institutions of the Old Dominion. As time went on and the character and genius of the great Virginian were studied the orb which did not set with the sun of the Southern Confederacy became a star of the first magnitude which will shine on "unto the ages of the ages."

SENATOR BURTON, of Kansas, has instituted an inquiry among the leaders of the Senate regarding the reception that would be given him were he to resume his seat in that chamber. Mr. Burton was recently convicted of having accepted a bribe and was fined $2,500 and sentenced to serve six months in jail. On Monday the U. S. Supreme Court gave him a new trial. The Senator maintains that the decision of the Supreme Court removes all possibility of his ultimate conviction, and that it is an injustice to his State for one of its Senators longer to abstain from participation in legislative affairs. While a few Senators have declared that they can see no impropriety in Mr. Burton resuming his seat, the majority are rightly opposed to such a step, and those he has consulted have so informed him. Some, however, even pointed out that while he retrained from taking part in the legislative work of the Senate that body could well afford to leave adjudication of his case to the courts, but were he to resume his seat the Senate itself would be compelled to order an investigation of the charges preferred against him and would not be hampered in its action by questions of jurisdiction or other technicalities. They have told Mr. Burton that he was entirely at liberty to resume his seat and answer to his name on the roll, but they have strongly urged him not to take the step until his case is finally disposed of by the court. Senator Burton got a new trial because the money paid to him to secure favorable action by the Postoffice Department, while mailed to him in the form of checks in St. Louis, was received by him in Washington, because it was there that he indorsed the checks and deposited them to his credit. Hence his receipt of the money was outside the jurisdiction of the court in Missouri. This case, like many others that have occurred recently, shows how difficult it is for a public official to violate the criminal laws.

IT HAS been practically decided by the republicans in the Senate that Senator Smoot, of Utah, will retain his seat, notwithstanding the long-winded investigations which have been conducted by the committee on privileges and elections. It is not clear, however, whether an official decision will be reached this session. A sub-committee may be sent to Utah to make further investigation and, incidentally, to put off further the day of official decision. To let themselves down "easy," it is said that the report of the committee which will recommend that Senator Smoot be allowed to retain his seat will be accompanied by a recommendation that a constitutional amendment be adopted prohibiting polygamy. It is also probable that the committee will recommend a further investigation for the purpose of learning more of the test oaths in ceremonials of the Mormon Church, and the general influence exerted by the church in political affairs. Last summer it was publicly charged than an agreement had been entered into between Senator Smoot and the republican national leaders, by which Smoot was to retain his seat in return for delivering the electoral vote of Utah to the republicans. He has fulfilled his part of the contract, and it is now understood that the republicans have satisfied him, that they will perform theirs. And this in spite of the fact that Congressman Roberts, a democrat, of Utah, was a few years ago turned out of the House because he was a Mormon. But what is all right for republicans is all wrong for democrats.

AS STATED in the Gazette of that day the strike of the cotton mill operatives at Fall River was settled at a conference in Boston yesterday. The conference was held at the State House, representatives of the manufacturers and of the operatives having met by arrangement made by Governor Douglas. The strike began July 25, 1904, when the manufacturers posted notices of a 12½ per cent. reduction in wages. By the settlement agreement, the operatives will return to work at once under the reduction. The question of the margin between raw material and manufactured goods which shall be required by the manufacturers is left to be adjusted by Governor Douglas. This was one of the most disastrous strikes that ever occurred in this country. It has cost both employers and employees millions of money and brought about untold misery, besides striking a blow to Fall River from which that city will not recover for years.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.

The National Board of Trade this morning adopted the recommendations of the committee on agricultural statistics, presented by Chairman William S. Harvey, of Philadelphia, that the Census Bureau reports of cotton ginning operations be continued. On motion of the delegates from New Orleans a resolution was adopted asking the government to make additional reports as to the movement of the cotton crop. Pending arbitration treaties were indorsed, as well as the administration policy on forestry and irrigation affairs.

The nomination of A. G. Stewart, of Iowa, to be Attorney General of Porto Rico, was sent to the Senate today by the President.

Joseph L. Bristow severed his connection with the Postoffice Department this afternoon. His departure from the office which he has occupied for eight years was unostentatious. The interesting part of his leaving was the silence from Postmaster-General Wynne's office.

President Roosevelt received a call this morning from A. W. Merrefield, the bearer of Montana's electoral vote to Washington. Mr. Merrefield was the President's partner in the ranching business at Medora, North Dakota, in the '80's, and the meeting at the White House today was a very jolly reunion. They talked over old days and at the conclusion of their visit the President insisted upon Merrefield taking lunch with him tomorrow, an invitation the Montana man accepted with great alacrity.

The personnel of the select committee of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce to investigate the Panama Railway, was today designated by Chairman Hepburn, as follows: Messrs. Shackleford, Lovering, Esch, Townsend and Adamson. Mr. Shackleford, who originated the inquiry, although a democrat, will be the chairman. The work will not be begun for several weeks, because the committee is now engaged with the railroad rate question.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 19.

SENATE.

By the adoption of a resolution the President was authorized to invite the International Prison Congress to hold its eighty annual meeting in Washington.

A message was received from the President advocating that Congress provide for six special consular agents to be known diplomatically as "commercial attaches," whose duties it should be to aid in the upbuilding of American trade abroad, under the direction of the Secretary of the State.

A message was also received from the President making certain recommendations for the relief of the natives of Alaska.

When a bill providing for the relief of ship owners whose cargoes and vessels were seized while engaged in pelagic fishing in Alaskan waters was called up Mr. Dolliver opposed its passage.

HOUSE.

In the House today it was agreed to hold appropriate services in Statuary Hall on Friday, Feb. 17, when Congress will formally accept the statue of Frances E. Willard, the gift of the State of Illinois. Frances E. Willard was one of the foremost temperance advocates, and her statue will be the only one of a woman in Statuary Hall.

A bill was passed extending the extradition laws of the United States to the Philippine Islands. Also a bill removing the limit of $2,500 on United States checks that have to be re-drawn to originals lost in transmission.

A resolution was adopted providing for the printing for general distribution of 7,500 copies of the report on tuberculosis in penal institutions.

The House then in committee of the whole, took up the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Clark's amendment to strike out the legislation for the Porto Rican provisional regiment, was read.

To Impeach Judge Swayne.

The House of Representatives yesterday adopted the twelve articles of impeachment against Judge Swayne, of the District Court of the northern district of Florida, which has been presented by its special committee of investigation. The speaker was authorized to appoint seven managers to present the case to the Senate and conduct the impeachment proceedings before that body.

The first vote, that to table the first three articles, those relating to the falsification of expenses, went against Judge Swayne by the narrow margin of five votes. This was regarded as the test vote, as the charge regarding expenses was the only one concurred in by the members of the committee signing the minority report. The motion to table these articles was lost, 160 to 165. Twenty-four republicans voted with the democrats against tabling, and three democrats voted with the republicans to table. On roll call three articles were adopted. Articles 4 and 5, relating to the free use of a private car by Judge Swayne, were made the subject of a separate vote, and adopted. Like action followed with regard to articles 6 and 7, charging him with non-residence in his district. This was the last roll call, as articles 8, 9, 10, and 11, relating to the Davis-Belden case, and article 12, relating to the O'Neal contempt case, were declared adopted on viva voce votes.

Senator Lodge today eulogized the late Senator Hoar, in an address to the Massachusetts legislature delivered at the State House in Boston by invitation of that body.

News of the Day.

Members of the Brotherhood of Trainmen on the Pennsylvania Railroad have voted in favor of a strike and all negotiations with the general manager were called off after a fruitless meeting.

Eight republicans in the Missouri Legislature bolted the caucus nomination of T. K. Niedringhaus yesterday and prevented the latter's election as United States Senator in the joint balloting of the two houses.

Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick is said to be in a serious condition from physical and mental collapse in the jail at Cleveland, and was much affected by the report that Mr. Carnegie would reimburse losers in the Oberlin Bank failure.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, has introduced in the House a bill providing that the Congress of the United States shall assemble hereafter on the first Monday after the fourth day of March of each year, instead of on the first Monday of December.

An ovation was tendered Booker T. Washington by the Kansas legislature which assembled in the House at Topeka yesterday to hear his address. He entered on the arm of the Governor and after his speech all crowded to the front and shook hands with him. Washington lectured at Wichita last night and was obliged to board while in the city with a colored politician, because, it is declared, each of the hotels in the city refused to entertain him.

STORY OF HANNAH ELIAS.

Hannah Elias took the stand in New York yesterday in her own defense in the suit for the recovery of $685,385 which John R. Platt, 84 years old, declares she extorted from him under threats of exposing their relations.

The negress testified that six months after he had become a widower her aged admirer had made her a present of his dead wife's watch and purse. She told him, she said, he should give it to his daughter, but he replied that he loved her better than anybody else in all the world.

She startled those present in the court room by testifying that she had given Patrick Dugan, an upholsterer, whom she also employed as a doorkeeper in her Central Park West home, $152,000 a few days before the proceedings upon which she was arrested were begun against her, and never got any receipt for the money. The woman also said she had turned over all her bank books to Dugan and he was in possession of them at the present time. She did not know what he had done with them, except he told her he had put them in a vault.

Counsel for Mr. Platt demanded that this money be turned over to a receiver, and ex-Governor Black, counsel for Hannah Elias, said this would be done.

The woman swore that Platt paid for several houses for her. She said he gave her "lots of money," as he could not remember her in his will because of his relatives.

The woman admitted that she had served two terms in prison, one in Philadelphia for larceny and the other in New York for disorderly conduct.

It developed during the examination of witnesses that she had distributed her easily acquired wealth with a free hand among those who had been of assistance to her.

Questioned by ex-Governor Black, Hannah Elias gave her age as 40 years, and said she first met Mr. Platt about 19 years ago at Fourteenth street and Sixth avenue. He gave her $500, said she was a nice girl and told her he would take care of her.

Asked, "Did you ever lose track of him?"

She said, "only when he went south. When he came back he would put an advertisement in the newspapers. It would read: 'Bessie, tell me where you are—Popper.' Then I would answer by putting an advertisement reading: 'Popper, Dime Savings Bank at 8:30—Bessie.'"

Miss Turner Was Victim of Mistake.

A dispatch from Springwood, Va., says: The condition of Miss Helen Turner, who was dangerously shot last Saturday near Buchanan, in Botetourt county, by a highwayman, was yesterday quite favorable. The ball struck a rib just over the heart and glanced around, coming out under the sholder blade. It caused only a painful flesh wound.

Recent developments show that Miss Turner was not the intended victim, and that the tramp theory has been abandoned.

The facts as worked up by the detectives show that the crime was committed by some one perfectly familiar with the county and people, and that a well-known young business lady, who every Saturday goes to Buchanan to have a check cashed in order to get money to pay her servants and farm hands, was the intended victim of the dastard. It also develops that robbery at first was the only motive. Finding, however, that he was mistaken in the person and being told that Miss Turner had no money, the highwaymen allowed other motives to enter his head. He even attempted to drag the young lady from her horse. Then it was that the brave little woman determined to save herself or die. She stuck bravely to her flying horse until she reached home. A clue is being run down, and at any moment the guilty man may be behind the bars.

Favors Martin.

Mr. St. George R. Fitzhugh, a prominent lawyer of Fredericksburg, gave out an interview yesterday regarding the United States senatorship. He strongly favors the re-election of Senator Martin. He says in part: "I sincerely hope that Senator Martin will succeed himself. It would, I think, be a serious calamity to the State to lose his services, and a serious calamity to the party to have its harmony disturbed by a bitter fight over the nomination, at a time when the rupture of party ties is already seriously threatened by impaired faith in party leadership. I assume that in the event of opposition, the fight would be bitter, since I think it is generally recognized that the Senator has filled the office with conspicuous ability, and with unflagging attention and fidelity to the interests of his constituents all over the State and it goes without saying that this undisputed fact, in connection with the valuable experience of his two terms in the Senate renders his capacity to serve the State and the party superior to that of any other gentleman of even equal equipment but without his experience, in the State."

Virginia News.

There is talk of establishing a reformatory for girls in Virginia.

Mrs. Susan Henkel, widow of Dr. Godfrey Henkle, died Tuesday night at her home in Newmarket, aged 95 years.

Miss Nellie Clendenning, daughter of Mr. S. O. Glendenning, of Hillsboro, Loudoun county, was married to Mr. Levi C. James yesterday.

Mr. Ferdinand Pratt, a well known citizen of King George county, died Tuesday night at his home, of general debility, aged 73 years.

Miss Anne Elizabeth Stribling died at Mount Jackson, Va., last week. Miss Stribling was the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Francis Stribling of Clarke county.

The University of Virginia is the recipient of a splendid lifesize statue of James Monroe, from the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, through President Francis.

Joseph H. Copenhaver, of Clarke county, the convicted wife-murderer who was sentenced to twelve years imprisonment for his crime, was sent to the penitentiary yesterday.

A pretty wedding took place at Lewiston, the home of Miss Eleanor C. Wheat, last night, when her niece, Miss Elizabeth Amanda Wheat, daughter of Mr. Charles C. Wheat, of Staunton, was married to Mr. Frank R. Tyler, a prominent Staunton druggist.

Col. A. M. Higgins of Norfolk says the Seventy-first Virginia Regiment will participate in the inauguration ceremonies of President Roosevelt in Washington. The Jamestown Exposition Company has made an appropriation for the expenses of the 500 soldiers who will attend.

A correspondent of the Clarke Courier says: Since reading Swanson's announcement of his candidacy for that exalted position of Governor of the Old Dominion, I feel that Clarke county will swing into line and give an immense majority for the people's champion. His manly declaration should win every voter.

Angus W. McDonald, of Berryville, died on Tuesday at Milford, Idaho. Mr. McDonald was a son of the late Col. Marshall McDonald, United States commissioner of fisheries for a number of years, and a distinguished scientist. The decease was thirty-one years of age and is survived by his mother and a sister.

Mr. Josiah P. Gayle, one of the most prominent citizens of Spotsylvania county, died at "Rosemount," Wednesday, age 68 years. Mr. Gayle served in the Confederate army and was a lieutenant in the 9th Cavalry until he joined Col. John S. Mosby's command, in which oganization he continued until the war closed.

The trouble at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute which culminated in the departure of the whole junior class is at an end, and all will be taken back, except six, whose record in other ways rendered them unacceptable. President Tinsley, of the juniors, has also been reinstated, the refusal of the faculity to do so sooner having been due to a misunderstanding.

It is announced that Dr. Joseph W Sonthall, superintendent of public instruction, who was a candidate for reelection, has decided to withdraw from the race, giving place to John A. McGilvray, assistant secretary, who has been connected with the department for about 19 years. McGilvray's only opponent so far is J. D. Eggleston, jr., superintendent of schools of Prince Edward county.

Mrs. Mary Glenn Jones, a promiuent society woman, now living with her parents in South Boston, has been granted a divorce in the Corporation Court of Danville from her husband, Dorsey Jones. The suit had been pending in the court for several months. In her bill of complaint Mrs. Jones alleged that her husband treated her with cruelty and had in a number of cases struck her with his hands. She claimed that her life had been made unbearable because of Mr. Jones's unreasonable jealousy of other men.

SAYS McCUE IS INSANE.

That J. Samuel McCue is insane is positively asserted in a letter received in Richmond from J. Clifton Harris, of Basic City, who has known McCue for many years, and who knew his mother and father. Mr. Harris called on the Governor to save the life of the wife-murderer. He says:

"His father was James C. McCue, an honorable citizen of Albemarle county. He was as good a man as the county ever produced, but his health gave way and his mind became impaired. He was sent to the insane asylum at Staunton. McCue's mother was the daughter of Samuel Cherton Moon. Her health too, became impaired, and she was forced to remain awhile in the hospital at Staunton. I have known J. Samuel McCue all his life. He is constituted very much like his father—a high-toned, honorable gentlemen, ambitious, full of energy and push; has striven hard to succeed in life, but the hand of fate has done for him what it did for his father and mother. I have thought for the last fifteen years that J. Samuel McCue's mind was losing its balance. I appeal to the governor to lend McCue a helping hand. Let him live and God will protect and reward you for so doing."

It is possible that the Court of Appeals, which now has under consideration the amended petition prepared by counsel for McCue, will make known its decision Thursday, January 26, which is opinion day, though it may be postponed a week longer. There seems to be no reason to believe that the decision will be favorable to McCue, since no new points are raised, and the court is said to have deliberated at length before reaching a decision. It is said that counsel for McCue are ready and anxious to debate any point in the appeal before the court, but it does not seem likely that the tribunal will call on them.

I use Chamberlain' Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want now.—GEO. W. EMORY, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Today's Telegraphic News

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE THE CZAR.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—What is believed to have been an attempt to assassinate Czar Nicholas occurred this afternoon. His majesty was returning from the ceremony of the blessing of the river Neva, when a shot was fired from the crowd, which lined the Czar's route. It is presumed the bullet was intended for the emperor. The shot entered a window at the corner of the palace. The Czar was not injured. It is reported a policeman was hurt. The Czar was not moved by the attempted assassination. After hearing the shot he casually inquired if any damage had been done. When he entered the palace his majesty went to the room into which the bullet had crashed, and examined the broken glass. He requested that a search be made for the bullet. The shot was fired as the guns boomed the completion of the ceremony. The bullet, which was an inch in diameter, made a two inch clean hole through the double windows. The shot entered the Nicholas Hall, which was crowded, and passed just over the heads of the occupants. It smashed the electric lights on the other side of the hall, bringiug them down with a crash. An officer picked up the bullet, which was made of iron, and resembled a shrapnel ball. The diagonal course taken by the bullet indicated that it came from the direction of the Bourse.

London, Jan. 19.—The Russian embassy in London this evening issued a statement admitting the firing of a shot at the Imperial Palace in St. Petersburg. The statement has it that an agitator, desiring to create a demonstration, fired at the palace from across the river.

Situation in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—The strike among the working men of Russia continues to grow and is rapidly taking on serious proportions. This morning 7,000 workingmen at the Neva hemp and cordage factory joined the strikers. Other laborers are expected to follow suit and it is believed by the end of the week the strikers will number 100,000. The railway employes now consider quitting work in sympathy. The strikers are sending emissaries to other cities in an endeavor to make the trouble general throughout the country. The government is doing its utmost to prevent any cause for disorder. Orders have been issued direct from the Czar to the police, instructing the latter to deal with leniency with the strikers and not to use force till every other method has failed. The fear is becoming general that, if rioting begins, the entire laboring population of St. Petersburg will get out of hand, and that the most serious consequences will follow. The strike leaders have a powerful control over the men, urging them to keep calm, as by this means they can gain more than by violence. If no settlement is reached before the strike funds are exhausted, it is thought nothing can prevent an outbreak. The belief is hourly becoming more prevalent that the strike has a strong political aspect and that it is constitutional, more than economic reforms, that the laboring classes want. Many who hold this belief point out that this is a pyschological moment to present demands in this manner, when the country is stirred by the events at the seat of war, and to take a stand against the policy of the government.

Railroad Disaster in England.

London, Jan. 19.—One of the worst disasters in the history of the Midland Railway occurred this morning at Cudsworth, near Barnsley, England, when three trains collided, killing six persons and seriously injuring 27 others. Among the latter is the well known artist, Robert Brough. It is reported that the three trains caught fire immediately after the collision, and that terrible scenes followed. The injured were pinned under the burning cars, and it was only with the greatest difficulty that a score were saved from a horrible death in the flames. The three trains which collided were the Scotch Express from London, an express bound for London, and the mail train from Leeds for Sheffield. The collision occurred during a fog. The Scotch express bound north, failed to see the Leeds mail in front, and ran into the mail train. The shock threw the mail train off the track. Before signals could be put out, the Scotch express bound south, crashed into the wreckage. Two special trains with doctors on board, were promptly sent to the scene and the wounded were attended to.

Voted to Strike.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 19.—Employes of the Wilkesbarre and Wyoming Valley Traction Company, at a meeting, this morning, voted to inaugurate a strike, and National President Mahan was given the power to fix the day on which the men are to leave the cars. The motion to strike was carried by a vote of 161 to 44, and later was unanimous. The decision to strike was a surprise, as the company officials, it is said, had a majority of signatures against a strike. A final effort will be made by the employes, through the Board of Trade, to reach an agreement with the company before resorting to extreme measures. If unsuccessful, a strike will be inaugurated on Monday. All the traction company lines covering the Wyoming Valley from Pittston to Nanticoke will be tied up should the men strike.

Threatened Strike.

Philadelphia, Jan. 19.—To avert, if possible, the threatened strike of Pennsylvania railroad trainmen, P. H. Morrisey, Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, will come to the city today. He left Cleveland last night upon the advice of First Vice Grand Master W. G. Lee, of the Brotherhood, and will reach the city about 3:30 this afternoon. Mr. Lee stated that a strike order would not be issued before 6 o'clock this evening, at the earliest. Last night he telegraphed Mr. Morrisey that the situation was very critical, and that he was unable to get General Manager Atterbury to recede from his position that brakemen must assist firemen in firing locomotives on freight trains. Grand Master Morrisey wired back that there was one step yet to be taken before a strike could be ordered.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 19.—There was rather curious irregularity in the stock market today, and operations seemed to be largely influenced by considerations based entirely upon the technical conditions of speculation. The impression is growing that important developments in the relations of the anthracite roads are on the eve of consummation, and rumors to this effect are tending to revive the bullish sentiment.

Terrible Tragedy.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 19.—In attempting to escape from the New Hamshire State Hospital at Concord, N. H., today, Mignonette Seavey, suffering from dementia, killed twe patients, seriously injured another, and committed a savage assault on the nurse. The killing was done with a towel roller, which the patient secured from the toilet.

On entering the ward at 1:30 this morning, Miss Fiske was confronted by the woman, who demanded the keys. On ordering her back to bed, the woman aimed a blow at the nurse which was parried, but the weapon in its descent extinguished the light leaving the ward in darkness. After a terrific struggle, the nurse succeeded in overpowering the maniac, and forcing her to the door she opened it and summoned help.

After the Seavey woman had been removed to the violent ward, a search of the ward in which she had been confined, revealed her deadly work. The body of one woman was found on the floor, while that of another was lying across the bed. Still another was unconscious. It is supposed that they were aroused by the movements of the Seavey woman and that she killed them in order to keep them quiet. The murderess had been confined in the asylum for four years and has never given any indications of violent mania.

Duke Declared Sane.

New York, Jan. 19.—Justice Gaynor in Brooklyn, this morning, decided that Brodie L. Duke is not insane and ordered his release from the sanitarium at Amityville, L. I. Mr. Duke stated that he had once been in a Keeley cure where he had been committed without a hearing. Duke left court with his counsel, while many spectators crowded around him and pressed his hand. Mrs. Alice Webb Duke whose recent marriage to Duke caused much feeling among the members of the Duke family, was not in court. It is said that detectives are keeping Mrs. Duke under surveillance on information from Texas that a warrant for her arrest will soon be issued there on an indictment found last fall on a charge of swindling E. A. Blount president of the Commercial National Bank at Nacogdoches out of $3,000.

Will Attempt to Force Dividend.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—As a result of the failure yesterday of the directors of the American Shipbuilding Company to declare a dividend on the common stock of the company, holders of the stock have gone into the courts in an endeavor to force a dividend. A suit has been filed by Attorney Carl Dautel. He says there is now in the treasury of the company, $3,678,442.75, which should be paid out in dividends. The directorate says this is needed for improvements.

Attack on Mitchell.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 19.—John Mitchell at noon today was the victim of one of the most vicious word attacks ever heard in a miners' convention here. Delegate Randall, of Wyoming, and a clique of miners tried to stampede the convention with a tirade on the miners' president. He went to the platform on being recognized and, looking straight at Mitchell, began his abuse. No operator or corporationist was ever so fearfully berated in a miner's convention as was Mitchell.

Returning to Work.

Fall River, Mass., Jan. 19.—While the texiile strike has been declared off, there was no great rush of returniug operatives at the various mills this morning. One reason for this is found in the fact that there has been a greater exodous of help from the city during the last six months than the manufacturers have herefore been willing to concede. It is estimated that at least one-third of the skilled labor is now out of the city.

The Dogger Bank Inquiry.

Paris, Jan. 19.—The first public sitting of the International Commission of Admirals, which is inquiring into the firing on English fishing boats off Dogger Bank by Russian warships, was held this afternoon in the State Banquet Hall of the foreign ministry. Admiral Fournier opened the sitting and gave the door to the English agent, Mr. Obeirn, who began the statement of the English side of the affairs. His story was virtually the same as brought out at the English inquiry at Hull. When he had completed, M. Bakludoff, the Russian agent, who submitted a statement giving the Russian version. This statement reaffirmed the presence of the torpedo boats in the midst of the fishing fleet. His remarks were in accordance with the Russians accounts already published. Adjournment being taken until Tuesday next. Considerable comment was aroused by the presence at the sitting of a counsellor of the Japanese legation in Paris.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings of the Court of Appeals Tuesday were:

Blair vs. Security Bank of Richmond, passed until March term.

Wednesday—Prison Association of Virginia vs. Russell's administrator and others. Fully argued and submitted.

Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company vs. Whitlow. Argued and continued until Friday morning.

Next cases to be heard:

Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company vs. Harris; Glenn vs. West, &c., and Williamson, &c;, vs. Payne and others, being Nos. 34, 35 and 36 on argument docket.

Court was not in session today a State holiday.

Letter to Mayor Paff,

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: You are interested in the prosperity of your town. You can contribute to it materially,, and give it a far more prosperous look at the same time.

Perhaps the public property needs a good coat of paint.

Devoe will supply that coat with two-thirds of the number of gallons required of any other. Devoe will last twice as long as any other. Devoe is all paint and full-measure. Devoe is the strongest paint known. Devoe will take care of the property, in the long run, for half the money required by any other.

E D Jewell, Corry, Pa, painted his house five years ago with a mixed paint; took 14 gallons. Last spring he repainted with Devoe; bought 14 gallons and had 4 left. Saved $15 to $20, for painting costs two or three times as much as the paint.

Yours truly

FOREIGN NEWS.

The British cruiser Melampus is ashore on the Long Bank near Rosslare, Wexford.

The British steamer Makley from Cardiff, with 5,900 tons of coal for Vladivostok, was captured yesterday.

The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger reports that an anti-dynasty rebellion is imminent in China. All the troops in south China are said to be ripe for revolution. The priests are fostering the discontent. The rebellion, says the paper, will surpass all previous trouble in China.

A terrific tornado swept over a portion of Servia this morning doing heavy damage. Near Valjeve a house was torn from its foundations and carried a quarter of a mile, while a number of smaller outbuildings were completely wrecked. Four persons are dead and two others are reported missing.

The Berlin Tageblatt reports that a terrible massacre of native Calmucks has occurred in the province of Tomsk, Siberia. The authorities urged the troops and Russian colonists to attack the Calmucks. All who could be reached were slaughtered. The orthodox Greek bishop of Makari blessed the butchers.

The Neue Frie Presse, of Vienna, reports that Servia has negotiated a loan of 70,000,000 frans from the Banque Ottomane, of Paris, and the Handels Gasselschaft, of Berlin. Twenty million francs will be expended in purchasing Creuzot batteries, Krupp guns and ammunition, and 30,000,000 francs will be expended in extending Servian railways.

The Berlin Tageblatt is informed from a diplomatic source that a Balkan crisis is imminent. The uprising will begin with a Macedonian rebellion on a most formidable scale, which will eventually develop into a war between Turkey and Bulgaria. Both of these latter countries are mobilizing their forces. The outcome, says the paper, may necessitate the rearrangement of the map of Europe.

A dispatch from Berlin says that the Crown Prince Frederick William was injured by being thrown from his dog cart today. The prince was driving from Berlin to Potsdam to skate on a neighboring lake. Suddenly his horse reared and kicked, throwing Prince Frederick completely over the horse's head. His highness fell heavily on the ground. Whether his injuries are serious or not has not yet been ascertained. The groom was also thrown.

President Loubet, of France, today received a number of Senators and Deputies of various parties and talked with them regarding the formation of a new ministry to succeed that of M. Combes, which yesterday resigned. This morning the President had a conference with Senators Guerin, Du Bost and Leydet, the heads of the main groups in the Senate, and this afternoon Deputies Sarenne, Etienne, Dubie, Jaures and Bienunu Martin will call at the Elysee.

The Hungarian elections developed a terrific fight between the opposition faction and liberals in the locality of Zevs yesterday. The opposition attacked the liberals with bludgeons and before they were separated 28 persons had been seriously injured. Fifteen of those injured had sustained stab wounds, many had their ears torn off, and the others were a mass of bruises, cuts and bites. The combatants fought like mad dogs. Three of the victims cannot live.

War Risks.

Quite a large business was done at the Lloyds in London in reinsuring vessels that are on their way with cargoes for belligerent ports. Forty-eight steamers are now on their way to the extreme Orient, a number of which were reinsured at 50 guineas net per cent. War risks were taken on 15 Hamburg-American line steamers which are expected to act as feeders for Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron. The Japanese charge that Chinese regulars accompanied the Russian raiders in their recent expedition planned to cut the line of Japanese communications. The Japanese captured the British steamer Bawtry in Tsu Straits. She was carrying shipbuilding materials and provisions from Kiaochou, on the Shantung peninsula, to Vladivostok. It is reported that during the attack on the Russian battleship Sevastopol at Port Arthur on December 14 a torpedo boat, commanded by Lieutenant Nagala, was lost, with 17 officers and men.

Murdered by Moonshiners.

Information was received in Roanoke yesterday to the effect that Henry Moore, a prominent young man of Franklin county, had been called from his home Monday night and shot to death. It is said that nineteen bullets pierced his body. Moore was reared by Capt. William Thompson, who resides about two miles south of Dillon's Mill. It is asserted that he was murdered by moonshiners whom, it is alleged, he had reported to government officials. When young Moore was called out of his home Sunday night he had hardly crossed the threshold before a volley was fired by a party, and he fell to the ground dead. Even after falling volley after volley was fired before the crowd dispersed, and when the family carried him to his room it was found that he had been shot nineteen times. The report was confirmed yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal J. J. Harris.

Governor Folk, of Missouri, has driven the lobbyists from the capital at Jefferson City, Governor Dineen, of Illinois, has promulgated rules to curtail their influence, and Governor La Follette, of Wisconsin, recommends laws to inflict severe punishment upon those guilty of offering bribes.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

General Lee's Birthday.

The public schools have been closed today, as well as the banks, while public officials have enjoyed a partial holiday. The weather has been fair and mild—ideal conditions for a holiday.

All arrangements for the reunion and banquet to be given at Confederate Veterans' Hall tonight by R. E. Lee Camp have been perfected, and an enjoyable time is anticipated. The Woman's Auxiliary to Lee Camp will be the caterers and young ladies will be the waitresses. Senator Bacon, of Georgia, and Representatives Fieldand Pinckney, of Texas, are expected to be present. As has heretofore been stated, the sale of tickets is not limited to members of the camp. They can be procured of Capt Thomas Perry, chairman of the committee, or of any of the members. The camp would be pleased to see many of our citizens at the entertainment tonight.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

J. W. Devers, arrested by Conductor Travers and Motorman Davidson charged with expectorating in electric cars, was dismissed, as it was shown that the act was not intentional.

William Robertson, colored, arrested by acting Lieutenant Young charged with stealing a boy's wagon from F. D. Crain, was turned over to his father for punishment.

Frank Richards and Benj. Scrivener, arrested by Officers Knight and Ferguson as suspicious characters, were dismissed with an admonition.

Wm. Phillips, charged with taking a watch from the Alexandria House, was dismissed, the plaintiff not desiring to prosecute and the accused promising to make restitution.

Death of Mr. Ennis.

Mr. William S. Ennis, who had been in ill-health for some time, died at his home on south Lee street this afternoon. The deceased leaves a widow and three children—two sons and a daughter. He was about 60 years old. Mr. Ennis was a native of one of the lower counties, and when in his teens joined company C, Forty-seventh Virginia infantry, and followed the fortunes of that command during the four years' war. In his early manhood he became a resident of Alexandria where he had since remained. He was for some time a fireman on the Southern Railway and subsequently an engineer. Kindly-disposed and pleasant in his demeanor, he made many friends and acquaintances who will regret to hear of his death.

Personal.

Mrs. Bedford Brown and her granddaughter, Miss May Glenn Uhler, left last week for Daytona, Fla. They will spend the remainder of the winter there and at other popular resorts.

Mr. Samuel E. Kane, formerly of this city, but now of Washington, and Miss Mary Davis, of this city, were married in Baltimore last Saturday.

Mrs. J. A. Wray, with her children, left yesterday for Wake Forest, N. C.

Dr. S. R. Donohoe, recently of Phoebus, has removed to this city where he will practice his profession. He is a son of Mr. S. R. Donohoe, of Fairfax, who is so well and favorably known in this city, and is a young gentleman of marked attainments.

Petty Thieves.

The depredations of bread and milk thieves, alluded to in yesterday's Gazette, have caused people to mention a number of similar annoyances to which bakers and milk dealers have recently been subjected. A great number of such cases are not reported, but that this species of petty thievery has long been chronic is well known. The bread wagons make their rounds about five o'clock in the morning, and it has been suggested that the police could follow the same occasionally at a safe distance and make some attempts to put a check to the work of the thieves.

Meeting Tonight.

The committee appointed by President Harlow of the Business Men's League to take some action in connection with present traveling facilities between this city and Washington, will meet tonight. It is expected that a number of persons not members of the league, but interested in the matter to be considered, will be present and vie with the members of the league in their efforts to bring about more satisfactory transportation facilities.

Officer Suspended.

Officer Andrew Nicholson, who was charged with sleeping in the electric railway station, at the northeast corner of Prince and Royal streets, and for disorderly conduct, last Saturday night, was suspended for five days by Mayor Paff last night. The evidence failed to show that the officer was asleep, and the action of the Mayor was based upon the facts in connection with the allegation of disorderly conduct.

Wedding.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at 7 o'clock last evening at the residence of Mrs. Wm. H. Mountjoy, 128 north Fayette street, the contracting parties being Miss Virginia Mountjoy and Mr. C. H. Smith, of Leesburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Haislip, of Leesburg. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present.

Railroad Wreck.

Passengers who reached here from Richmond today say that a southbound freight train on the R., F. & P. R. R. jumped the track near Millford, in Caroline county, this morning, and that nearly all of the twelve cars were wrecked. No one was hurt but travel was interfered with for some time.

Meetings.

The annual meetings of the Columbia National Sand Dredging Company, Atlantic Building Company and of the Potomac Stone Company were held in this city today. The meeting of the Mercantile-Railway Building and Loan Association was adjourned till tomorrow.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

Mayor Paff Replies to Remarks Made by Commonwealth's Attorney Brent During the Trial of the Persons Arrested at St. Asaph.

No business was transacted at the regular meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners last night, although the board was in session about an hour. The time was consumed in an interchange of opinion concerning the recent raid by the Alexandria police upon St. Asaph. All the commissioners were present.

Shortly after the board was called to order Mayor Paff requested Mr. Graham to take the chair, when his honor said:

Gentlemen—I am compelled to bring to your attention an occurrence of Monday, the 9th instant, which created considerable criticism regarding our police department among our citizens as well as those of our neighboring cities. I shall lay this matter before you as explicitly and briefly as it is possible for me to do, and ask you to bear with me during the time. In bringing the matter to your attention I deem it advisable to state that the merits of the case at law (that is, the legality of the business conducted at St. Asaph) is not within our province to determine, consequently that feature must be obliterated from our consideration. I merely mention this as the occurrence in question was—that our police department (or a part of it) was used in raiding or serving warrants on people conducting an illegal business at that place without the knowledge or consent of the Mayor. As St. Asaph is in Alexandria county and beyond the city limits, I contend that the same was against or contrary to all laws touching on the subject, and to prevent a recurrence, the guilty parties should at least receive the censure they justly deserve. The powers of this board are clearly defined in our city charter, articles 35 37 and 39. Under the authority given you, you have formulated rules and regulations governing the police force. The one which has been severely violated and to which I call your attention is rule 8, and at the instance of an official to whom we, at least, have a moral right to look for information. At any rate, it should be above him to induce men of any part of our city government to flagrantly violate the rules as laid down by you, and thereby subject themselves to punishment, possibly dismissal. I maintain that no policeman has the right to go beyond the city limits without the consent of the Mayor, and coetend that there is ample law to justify me in this conclusion. [Section 38 of the city charter and 1033, page 422, Acts of Assembly.] In the police court during the trial of the alleged offenders the Commonwealth's Attorney saw fit to arraign me in an unusual and unjust manner, while I was for maintaining for the lawful rights which are given the chief executive of our city. This, I feel sure, only adds to the censure which had already been heaped upon him by the public. As to his utterance, "fools rush in" etc.," I contend that it is more applicable to himself than for the one whom it was intended. However, I am digressing somewhat from the basis of my contention. The whole contention resolves itself to this: Have we as a board the right to lay down rules for the government of the police force and has the Mayor full charge of them in carrying out the laws within our city limit, or has the Police Justice, Commonwealth's Attorney or any other officer concurrent powers with the Mayor.

The Mayor subsequently read from the Acts of the General Assembly the charter of the city, the act constituting the Police Board, the powers of the Mayor under the constitution and the book of rules for the government of the police force. His honor contended that policemen could not be compelled to go outside of the corporate limits of the city to serve warrants, and that the force stood in the same relation to the city as the fire department. He then read a legal opinion obtained, he said, from a gentleman of this State in every way qualified to rule on such a matter, which affirmed all the Mayor claimed. His correspondent averred that the police could not be carried outside the city limits by the Police Justice or Commonwealth's Attorney without the consent of the Mayor. Mr. Paff read from the Acts of Assembly in order to show that such a procedure was forbidden without a requisition, and urged that the written permission of the Mayor was necessary in one city of the State before policemen could go beyond the city limits. The latter requirement, he said, was a city ordinance, but his honor referred to the book of rules governing the police force which forbids any member to leave the city without having first obtained the Mayor's permission. Mr. Paff said he felt it incumbent upon himself, in order to maintain his dignity as a gentlemen and Mayor of the city, to lay these matters before the board.

Mr. Graham suggested that the affair concerned the Mayor personally, and not the Police Board, without the Mayor desired to bring charges against the policemen who had participated in the raid.

The Mayor said he would like to hear some expression of opinion on the part of the commissioners, as the police had been grossly and intentionally misled by an official who should be above such an act.

Mr. Fisher said under any other circumstances he would do all he could to uphold the Mayor, but as the latter several months ago had turned the police force over to the chief and held him responsible for their efficiency, he deemed any action at present unnecessary.

The Mayor moved that the matter be referred to the Corporation Attorney for an opinion.

Mr. Fisher said the board was invested with no such power and would have to pay the bill if an opinion was procured.

Mr. Lawler did not deem it advisable to take any action until the matter was further investigated. Mr. Brent was posted in the law, and the only person the board could appeal to is the Corporation Attorney, who can decide whether it is in the province of any one to take the police force beyond the city limits without the Mayor's permission. As he understood it, Mr. Brent had sworn out the warrants and placed them in the hands of the chief.

The Mayor—"Had he the power to do it?"

Mr. Lawler—"St. Asaph is within the police jurisdiction of the city."

The Mayor—"It is not within the city limits."

Mr. Lawler—"The Court of Appeals a month ago decided that the city authorities had concurrent jurisdiction with the county a mile beyond the limits." Mr. Lawler called the attention of Mr. Paff to the fact that he (the Mayor) had recently taken the police into Alexandria county to quell a riot.

The Mayor—"I was misled by Mr. Brent." His honor detailed the circumstances in connection with that movement, saying Mr. Brent came to his home and made the suggestion to him. "If it was right to consult me then, it should have been proper on the 9th instant." His honor said he subsequently learned that Mr. Brent on the occasion of the riot among the Italians was acting as attorney for the railroad contractors and not as Commonwealth's Attorney and in the interests of the city. Mr. Paff said he thought the board should pass a resolution sustaining him in his contention—that is according to the rules adopted by the board.

Mr. Fisher reiterated his conviction—that the Mayor had turned the police over to the chief; hence he would urge no action on the lines suggested by the Mayor.

Mr. Lawler thought the chief had acted properly in the matter.

The Mayor—"It will not be done again."

Mr. Lawler said the matter under discussion was not one for the board to consider.

The Mayor once more appealed to the board for their endorsement of his views. This, he said, would afford him satisfaction.

Mr. Graham said the laws which had been read were by no means satisfactory—they did not make it clear where the powers of one person ended and those of another began. They must, however, mean that the Mayor is to be head of the police department. At any rate, this should be the case in courtesy to him.

The Mayor said he would procure a legal opinion and present it at the next meeting.

Mr. Graham finally moved that the board sustain the Mayor in all his legal rights.

Mr. Fisher—"The members are already obligated to do that."

The motion failed for want of a second and the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Brent in a conversation this morning with a representative of the Gazette said he had no formal reply to make to Mayor Paff, save that he denied having used the Alexandria police without the Mayor's full knowledge and consent on the occasion of the recent riotous conduct on the part of Italians in Alexandria county; indeed, he said the Mayor accompanied him and the policemen on that occasion. He said his action was official and in the interest of the community.

Mayor Paff visited the station house this morning and notified the officers that in future no policemen will be allowed to leave the city limits without his permission, and in case of a disobedience of such orders the officers engaged in the same will be made to answer charges which will be preferred.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at the Children's Home at 4 o'clock.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will hold a prayer meeting at the Children's Home on Duke street this evening at 7:30, to which all are invited.

Mrs. Mary J. Richardson has sold to Wm. G. Plaskett a house and lot on the north side of Queen street between Payne and West.

John Jordan, who is charged with highway robbery in Fairfax county, was today turned over to the authorities of that county.

A report reached the station house yesterday evening to the effect that a resident of the southwestern part of the city had beaten one of his children to death. The police made an immediate investigation and ascertained that no such thing had occurred.

The officers of the electric railway have requested the Mayor to strictly enforce the law which requires cars to be stopped before reaching the truck house on Prince street and also the law which prohibits cars from standing in front of that house.

So bad is the behavior of some of the boys of Washington school that the Mayor, by request, has ordered the police to be in the neighborhood of that school at the opening and closing of the daily sessions to keep order.

The boilers at the electric light works are being cleaned out and the lamps will not be lighted tonight.

Mrs. Kate O'Malley, 50 years old, housekeeper of the Hotel Metropole, New York, was found dead in bed this morning asphyxiated by gas. There was every indication that her death was accidental.

Eight prisoners escaped from the county jail at Georgetown, Del., yesterday, and up to late last night only one of the escaped men has been captured.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Coughs and Colds.

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Clears the phlegm draws out inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts, strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree for specific performance of a contract for the sale of certain lots on the corner of Patrick and Montgomery streets, in the city of Alexandria, to the complainant, E. C. Figgins, the said lots belonging to C. M. Campbell, and being described in the bill of complaint; and also to attach the interest of the defendents in the said lots to await the further and final action of this court in this cause.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendants, C. M. Campbell and Pauline Campbell, are non-residents of this State; It is ordered, That said defendants appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four succesive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. A copy—Teste: JOHN S. BEACH, Clerk.

STRIKES IN RUSSIA.

The strike situation in Russia is becoming very grave. Last night there were 58,000 men out on strike, and the movement is spreading to the big cotton mills, which employ over 50,000 operatives. Meetings have been called for today, at which the socialistic democratic leaders will use their utmost endeavors to convert the strike into a vast political demonstration, which, at the present crisis, might have most serious developments. The authorities are adopting every precaution to avoid an outbreak; but the socialistic democrats are spurring on the strikers, and there is great danger of a collision with the troops, which would be almost sure to be followed by red-flag demonstrations, accompanied by great bloodshed. St. Petersburg is full of sensational rumors, and rioting is generally expected. In conjunction with the Epiphany celebration, which occurs today, the meetings of strikers will make the day a critical one for the police.

Thus far, however, the strike has preserved a purely economic aspect. The great industrial quarter of St. Petersburg which is the pride of modern Russia, presents the appearance of an armed camp. The idle factories are surrounded by cordons of police, and patrols of infantry march about the snowcovered plains.

The strikers are led by a priest named Gopon, who is idolized by the workmen, and who represents them in negotiations with the employers.

This is the first great strike in northern Russia. Hitherto the workmen have been unorganized, and previous strikes in St. Petersburg have not involved more than 10,000 men. The strike leaders claim to have funds enough to hold out for a month, but this is doubted, and the lack of money and the privations of winter, and perhaps government interference, are expected to make the strike short and sharp. The strikers, who at first declined the offer of financial support by the socialistic democrats of Moscow, on the ground that they wished to sharply differentiate the walkout from a political movement are reported to have accepted the Moscow contribution.

The strike has an important bearing on the war in the far East, as every day's delay in completing government contracts at the iron works means the loss of precious time in the starting of the third Pacific squadron.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and and that is pleasant to take. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.

All who use Atomizers in treating nasal catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cts. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., N. Y.

New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900.

Messrs. ELY BROS.:—I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer, Wm. Lamberton, 1415 Delachaise St., New Orleans; he has used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results.

GEO. W. DUFF, Pharmacist.
